

Trump Administration Wages Multifront Assault on Coal Ash Protections

| How the Proposed Rule Weakens  | Proposed Rule  | Final Rule  | Fact Sheet;   | EPA   | Comment Period Length &  |
|--|--|---|---|---|--|
| the 2015 Coal Ash Rule   | Publication  | Publication   | Comment; Petition  | Information   | Extension Request Outcomes   |
| Proposes wide-ranging rollbacks including risk-based corrective action,  | March 15, 2018   | Not yet published   | related Envtl.Comments (Apr. 30,  | EPA Website,EPA-HQ-OLEM-  | Rule set 45-day public commentperiod; Mar. 16, 2018 request for 45-  |
| exempting utilities from source controland cleanup obligations, removal oflocation restrictions, etc.  | 83 Fed. Reg. 11,584  | NOTE: Related PhaseOne, Part One Rulewas Remanded   | 2018)   | 2017-0280 / NA  | day extension by public interest orgsdenied Apr. 17   |
| Withdraws intention to establish   | July 29, 2019  | December 2, 2020  | Press Release; Envtl.   | EPA Website,  | Rule set 60-day public comment   |
| financial assurance requirements for coalplants and coal ash spills  | 84 Fed. Reg. 36,535  | 85 Fed. Reg. 77,384  | Comments (Sept. 27, 2019)  | 2019-0085 /   | period   |
| Significantly broadens exemption for   | August 14, 2019  | (Related notice   | Envtl. Comments   | EPA Website,  | Rule set 60-day public comment   |
| "beneficial use" and exempts coal ashwaste piles from landfill requirements  | 84 Fed. Reg. 40,353   | received by OMBOctober 5, 2020 )   | (Oct. 15, 2019)   | EPA-HQ-OLEM-2018-0524 /2050-AG98   | period; July 15 and Aug. 9 , 2019requests for 60-day extension bypublic interest orgs denied  |
| Allows up to 10% of bottom ash wastewater to be dumped into  | November 22, 2019  | October 13, 2020  | Fact Sheet;Envtl. Comments (Jan.  | EPA Website,EPA-HQ-OW-2009-0819 /   | Rule set 60-day public commentperiod; Dec. 4, 2019 request for 60-  |
| waterways rather than recycled;Weakens requirements for, and createsan exemption from, treating scrubbersludge   | 84 Fed. Keg. 64,620   | 85 Fed. Reg. 64,650  | 21, 2020)   | 2040-AF77  | day extension by public interest orgsdenied Dec. 16   |
| Establishes federal permit program withminimal regulatory oversight, permits-for-life, and limited public participation  | February 20, 202085 Fed. Reg. 9940  | Not yet published   | Fact Sheet; Envtl.Comments (July 17,2020)   | EPA-HQ-OLEM-2019-0361 /2050-AH07  | Rule set 60-day public commentperiod; Mar. 6 and Mar. 23 , 2020requests for 60-day extension bypublic interest orgs denied Apr. 3, 30day extension noticed instead; Apr.16, 2020 request for 60-day extensioby Navajo Nation granted May 19  |
| Characterizes clay-lined ponds as unlinedand thus required to close; Establishesdates by which unlined ponds mustretrofit or close; Creates loopholeenabling utilities to avoid retrofit-or-close deadline for many additional years | December 2, 201984 Fed. Reg. 65,941   | August 28, 202085 Fed. Reg. 53,516   | Fact Sheet;Envtl. Comments (Jan.31, 2020);D.C. Cir. 20-1467(Nov. 24, 2020)   | EPA Website,EPA-HQ-OLEM-2019-0172 /2050-AH10   | Rule set 60-day public commentperiod; Dec. 4, 2019 request for 60-day extension by public interest orgsdenied Dec. 16   |
| (1) Allows some unlined ponds to   | March 3, 2020  | November 12, 2020   | Fact Sheet; Envtl.  | EPA Website,  | Rule set 45-day public comment   |
| operate indefinitely; (2) Allows additionaldisposal of large quantities of coal ash indeficient ponds (unlined, leaking,violating location restrictions) as part of"closure" process   | 85 Fed. Reg. 12,456   | 85 Fed. Reg. 72,506(covering provision1)   | Comments (Apr. 17, 2020)   | EPA-HQ-OLEM-2019-0173 /2050-AH11   | period; Mar. 6 and Mar. 23 , 2020requests for 60-day extension bypublic interest orgs denied Apr. 3   |
| Responds to 2018 court order requiringEPA to address inactive coal ash ponds at  | * Not yet applicable  | Not yet applicable  | Blog Post; Commentsdue Dec. 14, 2020  | EPA Website,EPA-HQ-OLEM-  | ANPRM set 60-day public commentperiod; Nov. 14, 2020 request for 60-  |
| inactive sites (legacy ponds); ANPRM   | ANPRM issued   |   | Feb. 12, 2021   | 2020-0107 /2050-AH14  | day extension by industry granted   |
|  | Proposes wide-ranging rollbacksincluding risk-based corrective action,exempting utilities from source controland cleanup obligations, removal oflocation restrictions, etc.Withdraws intention to establishfinancial assurance requirements for coalplants and coal ash spillsSignificantly broadens exemption for"beneficial use" and exempts coal ashwaste piles from landfill requirementsAllows up to 10% of bottom ashwastewater to be dumped intowaterways rather than recycled;Weakens requirements for, and createsan exemption from, treating scrubbersludgeEstablishes federal permit program withminimal regulatory oversight, permits-for-life, and limited public participationCharacterizes clay-lined ponds as unlinedand thus required to close; Establishesdates by which unlined ponds mustretrofit or close; Creates loopholeenabling utilities to avoid retrofit-or-close deadline for many additional years(1) Allows some unlined ponds tooperate indefinitely; (2) Allows additionaldisposal of large quantities of coal ash indeficient ponds (unlined, leaking,violating location restrictions) as part of"closure" processResponds to 2018 court order requiring | Proposes wide-ranging rollbacksincluding risk-based corrective action,exempting utilities from source controland cleanup obligations, removal oflocation restrictions, etc.March 15, 2018Withdraws intention to establishfinancial assurance requirements for coalplants and coal ash spillsJuly 29, 2019Significantly broadens exemption for"beneficial use" and exempts coal ashwaste piles from landfill requirementsAugust 14, 2019Allows up to 10% of bottom ashwastewater to be dumped intowaterways rather than recycled;Weakens requirements for, and createsan exemption from, treating scrubbersludgeNovember 22, 2019Establishes federal permit program withminimal regulatory oversight, permits-for-life, and limited public participationFebruary 20, 2020Characterizes clay-lined ponds as unlinedand thus required to close; Establishesdates by which unlined ponds mustretrofit or close; Creates loopholeenabling utilities to avoid retrofit-or-close deadline for many additionaldisposal of large quantities of coal ash indeficient ponds (unlined, leaking,violating location restrictions) as part of"closure" processMarch 3, 2020*Not yet applicable | Proposes wide-ranging rollbacksincluding risk-based corrective action,exempting utilities from source controland cleanup obligations, removal oflocation restrictions, etc.March 15, 2018Not yet publishedOne, Part One Rulewas RemandedWithdraws intention to establishfinancial assurance requirements for coalplants and coal ash spillsJuly 29, 2019December 2, 2020Significantly broadens exemption for"beneficial use" and exempts coal ashwaste piles from landfill requirementsAugust 14, 2019(Related noticereceived by OMB0ctober 5, 2020)Allows up to 10% of bottom ashwastewater to be dumped intowaterways rather than recycled;Weakens requirements for, and createsan exemption from, treating scrubbersludgeNovember 22, 2019October 13, 2020Establishes federal permit program withminimal regulatory oversight, permits-for-life, and limited public participationFebruary 20, 2020Not yet publishedCharacterizes clay-lined ponds as unlinedand thus required to close; Establishesdates by which unlined ponds mustretrofit or close; Creates loopholeenabling utilities to avoid retrofit-or-close deadline for many additionaldisposal of large quantities of coal ash indeficient ponds (unlined, leaking,violating location restrictions) as part of"losure" processMarch 3, 2020Not yet applicable*Not yet applicable*Not yet applicableNot yet applicable | Proposes wide-ranging rollbacksincluding risk-based corrective action,exempting utilities from source controland cleanup obligations, removal oflocation restrictions, etc.March 15, 201833 Fed. Reg. 11,584Not yet publishedUNTE: Related PhaseOne, Part One Rulewas Remanded related Envil.Comments (Apr. 30,2018)Withdraws intention to establishfinancial assurance requirements for coalplants and coal ash spillsJuly 29, 2019December 2, 2020Press Release; Envil.Comments (Sept. 27,2019)Significantly broadens exemption for"beneficial use" and exempts coal ashwaste piles from landfill requirementsAugust 14, 201984 Fed. Reg. 40,353Related noticereceived by OMBOctober 5, 2020)Envil. Comments(Oct. 15, 2019)Allows up to 10% of bottom ashwastewater to be dumped intowaterways rather than recycled;Weakens requirements for, and createsan exemption from, treating scrubbersludgeNovember 22, 201984 Fed. Reg. 64,620October 13, 202085 Fed. Reg. 64,650Fact Sheet;Envil. Comments (Jan.21, 2020)Characterizes clay-lined ponds as unlinedand thus required to close; Establishesdates by which unlined ponds mustretrofit or close; Creates loopholeenabling utilities to avoid retrofit-or-close deadline for many additionaldisposal of large quantities of coal ashusing utilities to avoid retrofit-or-close deadline for many additionaldeficient ponds (unlined, leaking,violating location restrictions) as part of"closure" processMarch 3, 2020March 3, 2020November 12, 2020Fact Sheet; Envtl.Comments (Apr. 17,2020)Characterizes clay-lined ponds tooperate indefinitely; (2) Allows additionaldeficient pon | Proposes wide-ranging rollbacksincluding risk-based corrective action,exempting utilities from source controllocation restrictions, etc. March 15, 2018 Not yet published related Envtl.Comments (Apr. 30,2018) EPA Website.   Vithdraws intention to establishfinancial assurance requirements for coalplants and coal ash spills July 29, 2019 December 2, 2020 Press Release; Envtl.Comments (Sept. 27,2019) EPA Website.   Significantly broadens exemption for"beneficial use" and exempts coal ashwaste piles from landfill requirements August 14, 2019 (Related noticereceived by DMBOctober 5, 2020) Envtl. Comments(Oct. 15, 2019) EPA Website.EPA+IdQ-SEW-2030-Ad03   Allows up to 10% of bottom ashwastewater to be dumped intowaterways rather than recycled;Weakens requirements for, and createsan exemption from, fracting scrubbersludge November 22, 2019 October 13, 2020 Eact Sheet; Envtl.Comments (Jan.201, 2020) EPA Website.Envtl. comments (Jan.2030-A638   Characterizes clay-lined ponds as unlinedand thus required to close; Establishesfor-life, and limited public participation Pebruary 20, 2020 Not yet published Fact Sheet; Envtl.Comments (Jan.31, 2020) EPA Website.Envtl. Comments (Jan.31, 2020) |

Last updated December 7, 2020 / Backgrounder available here